2020 E-Conference Program

10:00 AM  Welcome  John Chapin, RLB Library

10:10 AM  Timothy Chang
The Effects of Superstition on Test Performance

10:22 AM  Naiya Chapman-Weems
NASA SUITS 2020 – ARGOS Security

10:34 AM  Thomas Anderson
The Power & Importance of Education

10:46 AM  Sarah Creighton
Job Satisfaction

10:58 AM  Hugh Norko
Can Money and Politics Co-Exist Peacefully? An Analysis using Michael Walzer’s Concept of Complex Equality

11:15 AM  Break

11:17 AM  Angelica Rose Burton
The Representation of Women in Video Games

11:29 AM  Thomas Pollack
Life History Strategy and Urban Stressors

11:41 AM  Favour Okhuevbie
Seeking Justice in the Speluncean Explorer Case

11:53 AM  Brianna King
The Accuracy of Eyewitness Testimony

12:05 PM  Keynote & B.Y.O. Lunch  Dr. Michael Frederick, Applied Behavioral Sciences
Life history, physiology, and the immune system: How stress and inflammation shape our life trajectories and the decisions we make 12:40 PM Karen Akin
Predictors of Masculine Gender Threat

12:52 PM Nicole Gephardt
clothes ‘n convo

1:04 PM Cesia Calero
Hard to Win, Easy to Lose

1:16 PM Bryant Henly, Halvor Remole, Daniel Datu, Eric Saulsbury
Inspector Spector

1:28 PM
Break

1:35 PM Stephen Jenkins
Another Perspective: Examining Interactions Between ‘Squeegee Boys’ and Drivers

1:47 PM Maple Elemmire Wyand
Were Shakespeare and Kurosawa Marxists?: Examining Structural Critiques in Hamlet and The Bad Sleep Well

1:59 PM Carmen Corea Guerra
Liberal Democracies and the Use of the ‘Freedom to Associate’ to target those of Hispanic Descent

2:11 PM Michael Lamin Vandi
E-Learning Research Sierra Leone

2:23 PM Closing